Holiday CookTalk with Kerry McFarlin @ the Rowayton Library, Friday Evening, December 10th at 7pm Friday Evening, December 10th (7-8:30pm):

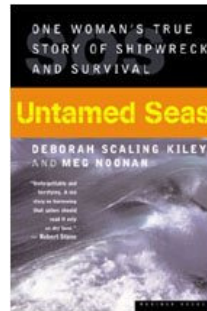

The Rowayton Library brings back its CookTalk program with Kerry McFarlin. Come share an evening with Kerry and learn how to make pulled pork three ways: classic BBQ style, Asian influenced and with a Mexican flair. She will also share menu suggestions for all three, as well as tips for throwing casual parties for twenty or more.

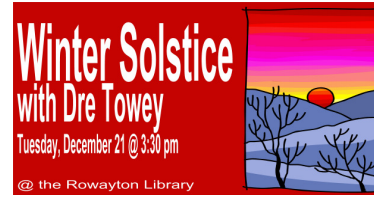

Kerry McFarlin worked successfully for 15 years in the catering business and has entertained family and friends at various events for over 30 years. She trained under an accomplished French chef and master butcher for two years and has taken an array of courses at the Institute for Culinary Education in New York City. Kerry's passion for the food and entertainment recently lead her back into the culinary profession as a cooking coach.

Reservations will reserve preferred seating for the tastings.

BookTalk for Adults: BACK FROM THE BRINK, December 15th @ 7pm: Untamed Seas: One Woman's True Story of Shipwreck and Survival, by Deborah Scaling Kiley and Meg Noonan

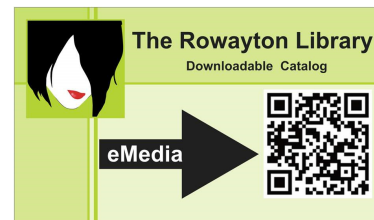

Multiple copies are available at the Library. Dessert, discussion, and discussion leader Marsha Bonsavage, This program is made possible -- in part -- through a grant from the Connecticut Humanities Council.

Winter Solstice Celebration – The First Day of Winter with Dre Towey, Tuesday Afternoon, December 21st @ 3:30pm

Come celebrate the shortest day and the first day of Winter with Dre Towey. Winter Solstice celebrations date back to ancient times. Here in Rowayton we are going to create our own tradition with music and stories from award winning musician Dre Towey. Everyone is invited. There will be refreshments, crafts, music, song, dance and fun for kids (and their families) of all ages.
