Be Creative @ the Rowayton Library Summer 2009 is made possible -- in part -- through the generosity of our local organizations and business sponsors:

*The Rowayton Arts Center, Center for Contemporary Printmaking, Wal-Mart Foundation, PetersandGreen.com (William Pitt/Sotheby's International Realty), Artist's Market, Business Connections, Community
Cooperative Nursery School of Rowayton, Cindy Cornell, Connecticut Humanities Council, C.P. Eaton & Assoc., Downunder Kayaking, Susan B. Edwards Assoc., Jordan P. Grant, Inc., Norwalk's Weed & Seed Program, Rowayton
Civic Association, Rowayton Pasta & Pizza, Rowayton Wines & Spirits, T-Party Antiques, and the residents of Rowayton, CT.*

All programs are free and open to the public. The educational exhibits are provided by "Teacher's Discovery." The workshops and lectures are provided to the community by the talented members of the Rowayton Arts Center, the Center for Contemporary Printmaking, and the Artist's Market. Some workshops require registration. The Summer Logo was created by Denise Minnery for the Rowayton Library. For more information, please contact the Rowayton Library at (203) 838-5038 or visit us at www.Rowayton.org.
